

Lesson 1 · What do you remember?

Seven questions in three parts. Work on your own first. Nothing here is graded on spelling.

Taught by Theresa O'Watch, Carry the Kettle Nakoda Nation · canadianlanguages.org

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____ Score _____ / 7

PART A · YOU HEAR IT, YOU WRITE IT

3 POINTS

1 How do you say Hello in Nakoda? 1 pt

2 How do you ask someone How are you? 1 pt

3 How do you say Goodbye? 1 pt

PART B · CHOOSE THE RIGHT ONE

2 POINTS

4 Someone asks how you are, and you feel fine. What do you answer? 1 pt

☐ Dayá wá ı́ ☐ Pinámaya ☐ Ába wašté

5 How do you say Thank you? 1 pt

☐ Dokén yá ı́ hé ☐ Pinámaya ☐ Áké Wacímnagikte

PART C · SAY IT YOURSELF

2 POINTS

6 How do you ask someone What is your name? 1 pt

7 Write a full sentence introducing yourself, with your own name in it. 1 pt

CAREFUL WITH THE LITTLE HOOK

Some Nakoda letters carry a small open hook underneath: ı́, ı́, Á. It is not decoration. A vowel with the hook and a vowel without it are two different letters, and two different words. Copy them exactly as you saw them.

Your teacher will mark this with you, out loud, so that everybody says all seven expressions one last time.